FEATURING

Polishing Paradise

A beautiful aquatic setting deserves equally dazzling water, explains water-quality specialist, Steve Kenny. That universal truth can lead anywhere, he says, including this project that is nestled in the heart of a tropical paradise, where he rescued a gorgeous pool from the murky depths of an inadequate treatment system.

Circular Engagement

Designing fountain features requires understanding the needs of the space, the clients and how the technology meets those demands, says fountain designer and engineer, Dan Netz. The Atlantic Station Park Expansion Project in Atlanta is a classic example of that kind of design adaptation - especially considering the engineering methodology needed to bring complex water displays to life.
